Subject: Questions for Judge James Ware

Dear Mr. Wieking,

I have honored the court order not to comment upon case C 07-03645 JW. Now that the case is settled, may I correspond with the court?

After the March 13, 2008 withdrawal of attorney John Shepardson from the subject case, he belatedly provided on June 12, 2008 all documents to me in two large boxes. Research of these documents reveals two documents<sup>1</sup> of critical importance which should have been copied into the case files before settlement.

Do I have your permission to send these documents to the Court? Your response is necessary inasmuch as the subject involves not only the judicial but the legislative?

Sincerely,

Alexander R. Ramsay
